

(注) 解答方法： 選択肢の中から最も適切な答えを一つ選び、その番号に対応する答案用紙のマーク欄を黒く塗りつぶしなさい。

QUESTION 1 You are shopping in Hawaii and have chosen which gift to buy. What do you say to the shop clerk?

1. Is there an extra charge for this?
2. I'm shopping here for a friend.
3. I'm sorry, I don't like this one.
4. I'll take this one and would like to have it wrapped, please.

QUESTION 2 You see a foreigner asking a young policeman a question in English, but he does not seem to understand. How might you offer to help?

1. Are you good at Japanese?
2. I wish I could understand English.
3. I'm not familiar with this town.
4. I can interpret for you if you like.

QUESTION 3 London is nine hours behind Tokyo. What do you call this gap?

1. A time difference.
2. A jet lag.
3. Greenwich Mean time.
4. Flight time.

QUESTION 4 What do you call the kind of aircraft which has blades on top and can take off and land on the spot.

1. A jetliner.
2. An airdrome.
3. A helicopter.
4. A glider.

QUESTION 5 You are the captain of an airplane. You should allow an interval of at least 10 seconds before repeating radio calls. Can you call again 12 seconds after your first call?

1. No, I can not.
2. The interval is entirely up to me.
3. Yes, I can.
4. Not after the first ten minutes have passed.

QUESTION 6 You are the captain of an airplane and want to land at your destination. What is the procedure?

1. I should watch the preceding aircraft on the radar.
2. I should contact the controller and request clearance for landing.
3. I should maintain contact with other aircraft.
4. I should follow the preceding aircraft.

QUESTION 7 You are the captain of an airplane in flight. You see smoke and a small fire in the cockpit. What should you do?

1. I should check the cockpit elaborately.
2. I should extinguish the fire promptly and make an emergency landing if necessary.
3. I should call in investigators to perform a mechanical check.
4. I should ask the cabin crew what has happened.